BIG COMEBACK BY CHICAGO

Enabled Them to Defeat New York When Apparently Licked

HARD HITTING ALL THE WAY

White Sox Now Have the Edge on the World Series

Chicago, Oct. 15 .- Apparently beatenhopelessly, disgracefully licked by themselves instead of the Giants-the White Sox staged a tremendous come-back and by a score of 8 to 5 after almost all the tickets here Saturday. At the end of substitute.-Adv. five innings, nobody would have given a seven-year-old rain check for the chances of the Bowlands. Before the game, their club owner had lost the toss which decided the place for the seventh game, giving the Giants a big advantage if the series is fought out that far.

The battle started all New York's way and at the end of five rounds the White Sox could feel their legs dangling over the precipice behind which yawned the chasm of oblivion. They had given the Giants a toe hold of four runs to one, through a series of blunders, boots and bobbles that would have disheartened even the kaiser's press agent.

With nothing behind them apparently but thin air, the Rowlands rallied and fought themselves back to even terms before the seventh inning was ended, then routed the Giants so completely in the eighth that there wasn't an atom of baseball battle left in the whole Mc-Graw outfit.

The Giants fought madly, desperately, and with all the rough-neck tactics they have learned in years of service under their old school manager. They blocked University of Rochester 0. runners and shattered the atmosphere with profanity, calling the conquerors everything known to the vocabulary of the New Yorker. At one time it looked as if Fletcher and Rowland would break into the pugilist column after the inning in which the Giant shortstop had handed the Sox the game. Rowland was ready to put the belligerent shortstop Penn. Military college 7 out of commission, for the rest of the series, at the cost of being banished from shall-Temple university, canceled. the side lines himself, but umpire Evans rushed in between and avoided the slugging match that was brewing.

It was the rottenest, most uproariously exciting, rowdiest and gamest fight ever seen in more than a decade of Wesleyan 0. world's series combats. CHICAGO.
